THE FIRST GAME.

Luck-that indescribable, intangible omething and yet a factor not to be denied in base ball, was present on Saturday, and it seemed to be due to that that the Matles went down to defeat at the bands of the Kams. PUNAHOUS IN THE AIR. Oh! the torture was something awful! Punahou to the bad and Oahu to the good by a score of 14 to 1. Now what do you think of that? Desha was in the box for the College boys and he allowed 14 hits and that mean 14 runs for the Oahus. Hampton allowed 4 hits and it was the difference in the butting that won the game, for the score shows only a difference of one error. Desha seemed to be to the bad. Why, cannot be explained. He allowed hits o be made off him as never before. The only consolation that the boy has lies in the fact that the Oahus perhaps are the heaviest hitters in the lengue. In that there certain'y is some truth
